TEXT FROM INDIVIDUAL AND SHARED INBOX NUMBERS

Use your own personal number for private text conversations and use shared inboxes for when you want to make incoming/outgoing texts visible to your entire team.

That way every team member can receive and respond to messages , using just one inbox and just one number.
ONE NUMBER, MULTIPLE APPLICATIONS

The CT TEXT service includes a dedicated number for each of your personal or shared inboxes. This gives you the flexibility to text across multiple business applications and devices. The number can be in your own local area code and is generated from our secure cloud message service within Microsoft Azure.
